PROFILE

Hello! I'm Rahbar Alam, Motivated and detail-oriented MCA graduate with a strong foundation in web development using technologies like HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Bootstrap, Python, Django, and SQL. Developed multiple academic projects focusing on full-stack development. Introduced to Machine Learning and Data Science during coursework, which sparked a deep interest—currently self-learning these fields through projects and online courses. Seeking an opportunity to contribute to a tech-driven team and grow as a developer or data analyst
